EXPLORING AVONDALE'S NATURAL SIDE

If the idea of hiking, birdwatching, or simply sitting near a pond watching the clouds roll by makes your heart beat a little slower (in the best way), you're in the right place.

Avondale might surprise you with just how green, wild, and alive it feels once you step outside and into the sun-dappled calm of the great outdoors.

From mountain trails to wetlands filled with life, this desert city knows how to serve up fresh air with a side of "whoa, is that a bald eagle?"

Estrella Mountain Regional Park Desert Adventure with Room to Breathe

Let's start big. Estrella Mountain Regional Park is basically Avondale's backyard wilderness with nearly 20,000 acres of rolling desert hills, winding trails, and views that'll make you forget all about your inbox. Whether you're looking for a hike, a horseback ride, or a lazy picnic under a mesquite tree, this park delivers. The trail options range from "I just want a peaceful walk and to eat snacks at the halfway point" to "Let's see if my quads survive this."

But before you leave Estrella Mountain Regional Park, don't miss the chance to hike up to Monument Hill. It's a little-known spot with a surprisingly big story. Nestled just east of Phoenix Raceway, this humble-looking rise is home to Arizona's "Initial Point," a historic survey marker that literally set the starting point for all land surveying in the state. Yep, everything - maps, boundaries, property lines - starts right here. It's a short, steep climb, but the view from the top makes it so worth it. It's one of those hidden gems you can casually name-drop later and say, "Oh, you haven't been to the beginning of all of Arizona? Wild." The very first marker was placed here in 1851, back when the Gila River, which is visible from the summit, marked the original boundary between the United States and Mexico. Today, it's a must-visit for history buffs, geo-nerds, and anyone who loves a good Instagram-worthy scenic shot.

White Tank Mountains Where the Cactus Blooms and the Views Stretch for Miles

Technically a little north of Avondale, but well worth the short drive, the White Tanks' 29,000+ acres offer the kind of hike that turns casual walkers into accidental nature lovers. Trails snake through saguaros and boulders, with plenty of spots to pause, catch your breath, and say, "Arizona is something else." The waterfall trail (yep, a waterfall in the desert) is a favorite, especially in spring after a good rain. And if you're a sunrise hiker? This is your spot.

Crystal Gardens Wetlands
The Best-Kept Secret for Lazy Day Exploring

Don't let the word "wetlands" fool you. This is Avondale, not the Everglades. Crystal Gardens is a water reclamation project with a series of lakes and walking paths that attract ducks, egrets, turtles, and a surprising number of joggers who actually look like they enjoy it. It's peaceful, family-friendly, and ridiculously photogenic during golden hour. Bring a thermos of ice water and a friend you don't mind walking in silence with. Bonus points if you pack trail mix that doesn't include raisins. No one likes those.

Tres Rios
The Birdwatcher's Playground

Now let's get nerdy (in the most terrific way). Tres Rios is where the Salt, Gila, and Agua Fria Rivers meet. It's a haven for nature lovers, especially the ones who get a little giddy spotting herons or hawks. This place is teeming with wildlife. And we stand behind that promise. You've got river otters frolicking about, turtles sunbathing like they've got nowhere to be, and birds. So many birds. More than 200 birds and wildlife species call this place home, and honestly? Most of them are 100% fabulous. It's the spot where you'll start out saying, "I'm just here to stretch my legs," and end up whisper-yelling an hour later, "Did you see that egret?!"

Ditch the Phone (Except for Pics) and Go Outside

Avondale's natural side doesn't need neon signs or rollercoasters to get your attention. It's soft desert wind, birdsong, the crunch of trail underfoot, and that moment where everything gets quiet and you suddenly feel...ahhhh...better. So go ahead and lace up your sneakers, fill your water bottle, and let nature work its magic. The emails can wait.

BIRDS OF AVONDALE

Bonus:

Just east of Avondale, you'll find the Nina Mason Pulliam Rio Salado Audubon Center (aka birdwatching heaven, but with air conditioning). This place is a full-on nature escape in the middle of the city, where you can stroll shady trails, spot over 200 species of birds, and check out free exhibits that make science feel less like homework and more like a "did you see that?!" moment. Admission is free!

Sweet SPOTS In Avondale

A Guide to Must-Try Desserts

Sugar...oh, honey, honey! This one's for all our candy girls (and boys!). If you're looking to cap off your culinary adventures with something sweet (because, who isn't?), you're in for a treat—literally. A cherry on top, if you will. Avondale is a dream destination for dessert lovers, thanks to a lineup of locally-owned spots crafting everything from French pastries to frozen creations. Here are a few can't-miss stops to satisfy your sweet tooth while you're in town.

1. Crepella Crepes Café

1461 N. Dysart Rd., Avondale, AZ 85323

Our first stop is bringing a taste of France to Avondale. Crepella Crepes Café takes the classic French crepe to the next level, balancing decadence with delicacy. Go for the timeless classic—a crepe filled with velvety Nutella, fresh seasonal berries, and finished with a cloud of whipped cream—or go bold with the indulgent Strawberry Cheesecake crepe, serving up a combo of strawberries, cream cheese, coconut, a drizzle of strawberry syrup and a sprinkle of powdered sugar for good measure. Whether you're a dessert purist or seeking something savory, (may we recommend the eggs, cheese, and turkey crepe?), grab a hot or cold beverage and voila! Your crave-worthy experience is complete.

2. MAE Fine Foods

1250 N. Fairway Dr. Ste. C-105, Avondale, AZ 85323

We're not quite ready to bid au revoir to France just yet. Refined, elegant, and bursting with flavor, MAE Fine Foods brings a touch of luxury to Avondale's dessert scene. Known for their handcrafted gourmet bon bons and French macarons, this family-owned business is a must-visit for those with a taste for elevated sweets. Each bon bon is a miniature work of art—expertly molded, vibrantly colored, and filled with rich, chocolate flavors like coffee lovers, passionfruit mango, or suspended vanilla caramel. Not to be outdone, the French macarons come in classic flavors like pistachio and sea salt caramel, or you can venture into the more tropical with pina colada and mango y chile. Whether you're picking up a gift box or treating yourself to a post-dinner indulgence, MAE's bon bons and macarons deliver a melt-in-your-mouth experience that's as beautiful as it is delicious.

3. Nautical Bowls

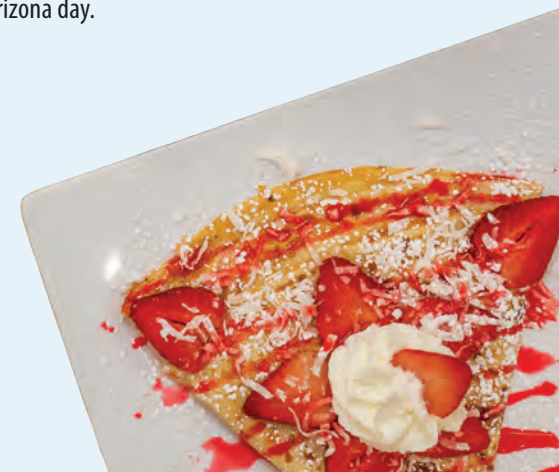

10030 W. McDowell Rd. Ste.150, Avondale, AZ 85392

It's time to cleanse the palette with something more refreshing. This healthier option (No, don't go! We're still talking desserts.) is a superfood that still packs a sweet punch. Nautical Bowls delivers the perfect balance of indulgence and nutrition with their Instagram-worthy superfood smoothie bowls and drinks. Each bowl is layered with organic, nutrient-packed ingredients like açai, pitaya, granola, and fresh fruit—topped off with drizzles of nut butter, cacao nibs, or coconut flakes for that extra crunch. Their smoothies and bowls are not only refreshing and energizing, but they also feel like dessert without the guilt. Whether you're fueling up post-workout or cooling off on a hot day, Nautical Bowls is a go-to spot for a feel-good treat that tastes as amazing as it looks.

4. Robeks Fresh Juices & Smoothies

10485 W. McDowell Rd. Ste. 105, Avondale, AZ 85392

Sip, sip, hooray! This next treat is as refreshing as it is revitalizing. Robeks blends flavor and function with their lineup of smoothies, fresh juices, and wellness shots. Whether you're sipping on a very berry smoothie, a green juice packed with leafy goodness, or a zesty lemon-ginger shot, every item is crafted with fresh, nutrient-rich ingredients that taste as good as they are good for you. Robeks is the perfect stop when you're craving something cool, fruity, and energizing—especially on a hot Arizona day.

5. Sodalicious

3920 N. 107th Ave., Avondale, AZ 85392

If you're in the mood for something sweet, fizzy, and totally over the top, Sodalicious is your go-to fix. Known for their creative soda mixes and craveable cookies, this spot puts a playful spin on your favorite treats. Customize your dream drink with endless soda + flavor combos—think Dr. Pepper with coconut and vanilla, or 7UP with Peach and Blue Curacao—then pair it with one of their famous soft-baked cookies, like the gooey chocolate chip or frosted sugar. Whether you're cooling off or just need an afternoon pick-me-up, Sodalicious is all about fun flavors and feel-good vibes.

6. TJ's Homestyle Restaurant

310 N. Dysart Rd., Avondale, AZ 85323

This last one feels just like home. If your idea of the perfect dessert leans warm, nostalgic, and made from scratch, TJ's Homestyle Restaurant is a must-visit in Avondale. Located in the heart of Old Town, this longtime local favorite delivers all the cozy, down-home charm you'd expect—with a dessert menu that's pure comfort on a plate. Their house-made pies are the star of the show, each slice served with a generous dollop of whipped cream or a scoop of vanilla ice cream for the full diner experience. But the real showstopper? The cinnamon roll—a warm, gooey spiral of cinnamon-sugar goodness, glazed with just the right amount of icing that melts into every soft bite. It's the kind of treat you'll want to split, but probably won't.

From nostalgic comfort bakes to refreshing superfood bowls and creative drink concoctions, Avondale's dessert scene proves that sweet moments can be found in every corner of the city. Whether you're a visitor looking to explore local flavors or a longtime resident with a serious sweet tooth, these spots offer more than just sugar—they serve up community, creativity, and a whole lot of joy.

So go ahead—order the cookie, sip the shake, savor the crepe. Life's too short to skip dessert.

Their events are more than just games—they’re a slam dunk for the West Valley and a big win for the Avondale community.

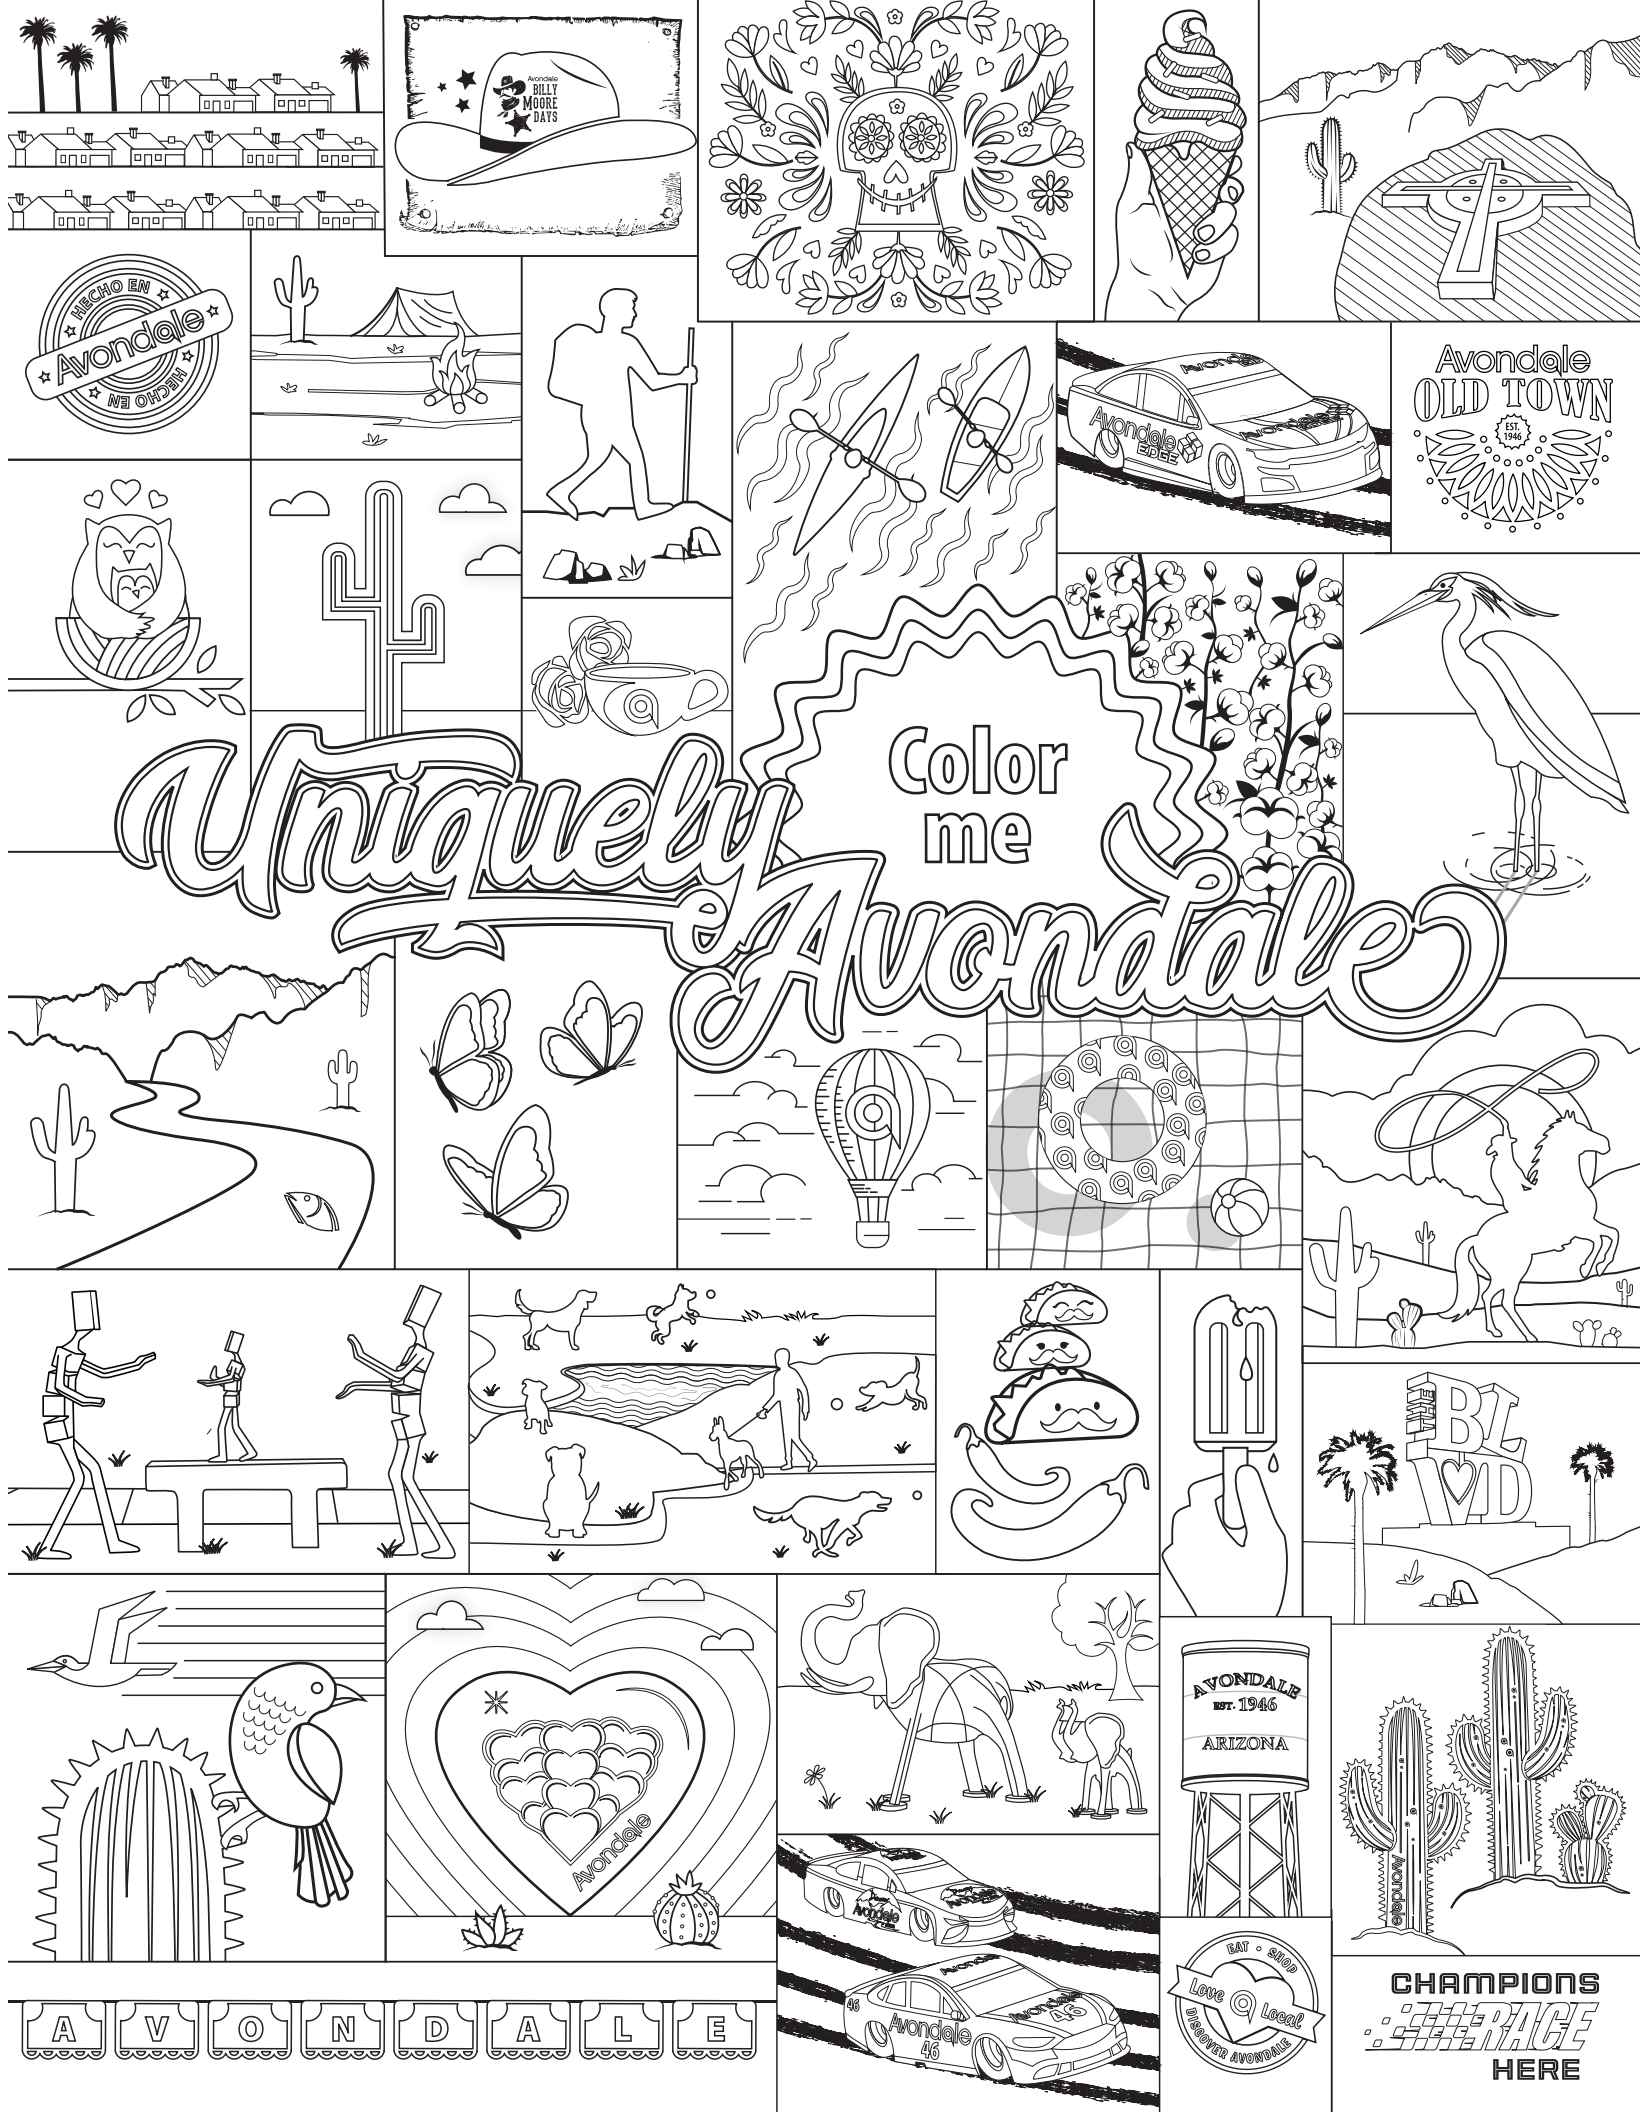

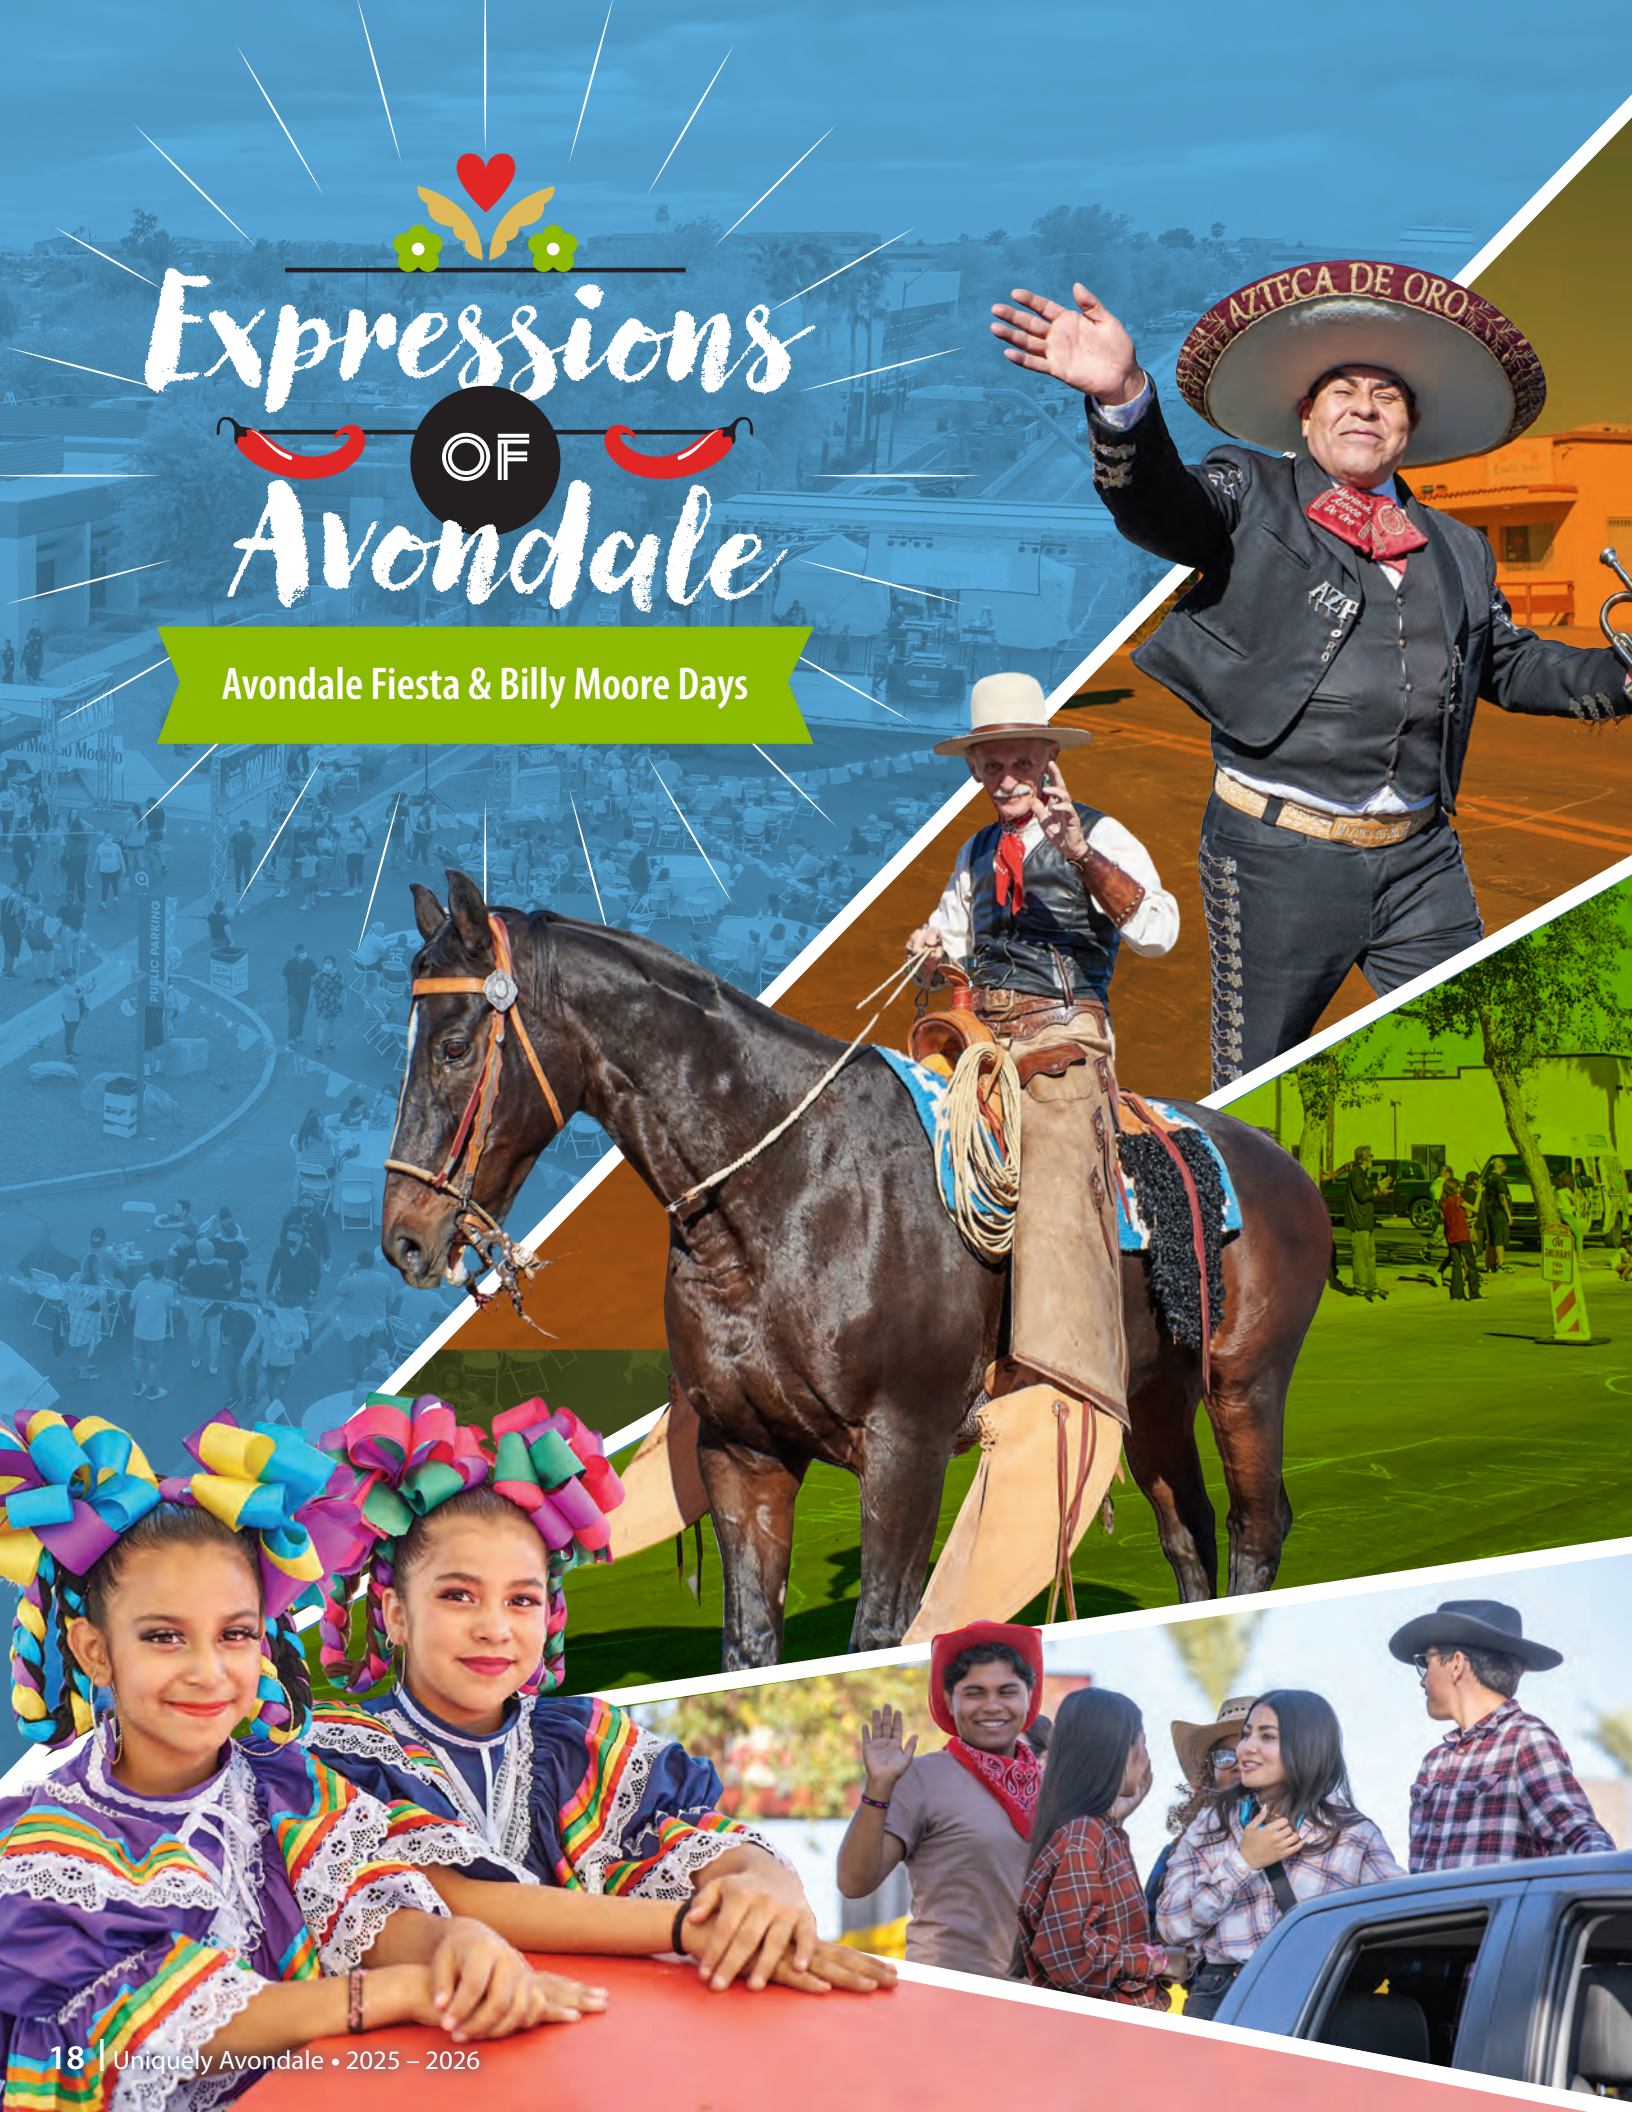

Competition Meets Community

ASC isn't just about casual play (although there’s plenty of that); it’s a hub for serious competition. It’s the chosen venue for numerous basketball, volleyball, and soccer tournaments, including events organized by Special Olympics Arizona. ASC’s cheer and dance program brings the energy, the moves, and the glitter, teaching kids rhythm, teamwork, and how to rock a routine with confidence. Not-to-miss Cornhole Leagues, (yes, there’s a league for that) are in full swing throughout the year. Sports clinics are perfect for athletes who want to level up their game and when school’s out for the summer (you sang that, didn’t you?), ASC’s sports camps pack the courts with drills, games, laughs, and just the right amount of sweaty, high fives.

The ASC goes far beyond being a sports facility, hosting several community events tailored for all ages. If you’re wondering if you can host your own extravaganza there, ASC provides facility rentals for events like birthday parties and corporate gatherings, making it a one-stop shop for any occasion. Ready to book a tournament, register for a league, or just check out what’s happening at ASC? Visit ascavondale.com or call (623) 792-5504 for current schedules, rental info, and event details.

Whether you’re here for the games, the vibes, or just a good excuse to grab coffee and watch your kid crush it on the court, ASC is where Avondale plays hard and shows up big.

Expressions OF Avondale

Avondale Fiesta & Billy Moore Days

BRINGING THE PAST TO THE PARTY

In May and October, the streets of Avondale start to buzz with music. The scent of fry bread and fresh churros fills the air, and folks of all ages come out for a celebration that's as much about tradition as it is about having a good time.

Hint: Become an event expert and check our website for exact dates and details: avondaleaz.gov/government/departments/parks-recreation/events

BILLY MOORE DAYS

Celebrating Avondale's Heritage

When: October 22 – 25, 2026

Where: Festival Fields Park, 101 E. Lower Buckeye Rd., Avondale, AZ 85323

Billy Moore was the original settler of this area back in the 1800s, long before Avondale had stoplights, schools, or the food truck scene it has today. He set up a stagecoach stop near the Agua Fria River and called the place Coldwater. Eventually, the town changed its name to Avondale. However, Billy's legacy still rides high in the saddle, especially come October, when the city celebrates him with a weekend full of hometown pride.

Billy Moore Days is a multi-day affair with a full schedule of festivities including a parade, carnival rides, games, a beer garden, and live family-friendly entertainment.

AVONDALE FIESTA

Cinco de Mayo Celebration

When: May 2, 2026

Where: Old Town Avondale on Historic Western Avenue

Every May, as the desert heat starts to rise, Avondale turns up the cultural temperature with its Avondale Fiesta. This free, family-friendly event is a heartfelt nod to the city's Mexican heritage, bringing the community together in a lively nighttime festival.

Stroll down Western Avenue and the smell of mouth-watering authentic Mexican cuisine will grab you (who can resist?!). It's not just about the food (but it's worth noting that there is a bonafide salsa showdown). It's Latinx culture in full color, food vendors sling everything from tacos to tamales, artisan crafts, and a vibe that says, "you're not going home early tonight." This festival offers a glimpse into the artistic traditions passed down through generations.

For the young, the Kermés en la Biblioteca at Sam Garcia Library offers carnival games and lotería, a traditional Mexican board game, ensuring smiles all around. It's more than just a festival; it's a celebration of community, culture, and the ties that bind us all.

Avondale

1946 – 2026

Avondale Through the Decades

BEFORE WE WERE AVONDALE

Avondale's founding father, William "Billy" G. Moore, arrived in Arizona in the late 1860s, settling near the Agua Fria River in 1880. He called the area "Coldwater, Arizona," after the river. Back then, Coldwater was just a general store and stage stop near the Agua Fria river crossing. The City took its name from "Avondale Ranch," where the post office was established in 1896.

1940s

This decade established Avondale as a City, with its incorporation in 1946. The first official census determined the population to be 2,232 residents. This post-WW2 era gave many in the community the opportunity to start a family or begin a business in downtown Avondale. The outlying area was mainly farm fields and was sparsely populated.

1950s

Agua Fria High School opened (1956), and Billy Moore Days was started by the Chamber of Commerce (1954).

1960s

Phoenix Raceway was established (1964). The original owner built the track with dreams that it would be someday known as the "Indianapolis of the West."

1970s

The city was still relatively small, at only 3.5 miles in size, and a population of 7,000. All residents lived west of the Agua Fria River. Mountain View Park was the first official park in the city. Avondale's first public library broke ground in 1973.

1980s

The population started to boom in this decade, nearly doubling every census until the early 2000s. The city provided important services and more infrastructure to keep up with the growth. Garden Lakes was the first master planned housing development in Avondale. The Cashion community was annexed (1987).

1990s

Higher education opportunities arrived in Avondale when Estrella Mountain Community College was built (1992). The city now had two high schools, with Westview HS serving residents north of the Agua Fria River. Farmland was still a prevalent part of the landscape during this decade.

2000s

This decade marked a period of significant changes. The Civic Center Campus was developed (2003). The Randall McDaniel Sports Complex was built (2009), and 115th Avenue was renamed Avondale Blvd (2003). The city's retail base grew with the arrival of large retail hubs such as Gateway Pavilions, Gateway Crossing, and the Avondale Automall.

2010s

Quality of life opportunities continued to grow. Avondale was named an All-America City (2014). The Tres Rios area in Avondale was designated as a significant birding area by the National Audubon Society. The 200M Bus circulator service began (2010), and Festival Fields Park opened (2019).

2020s

Avondale's population at the start of this decade is 93,000 and growing! As the City continues to expand with new housing, businesses, and jobs, it's also investing in modern amenities such as the Mayor Marie Lopez Rogers Complex and expanding Festival Fields (2020); Fairway Drive Interchange off Interstate 10, and The BLVD development (2021); the Avondale Visitor and Conference Center, Alamar Park, and its 5th Fire Station (2022); and the Avondale Aquatic Center and Mountain View Park improvements (2024). Avondale's WeRide micro-transit program launches in 2022, an immediate success. Avondale's West Valley Health Quarter expands during this decade, along with significant data center investment. From 2020 – 2025, Avondale was the host city for the NASCAR Championship Weekend.

Avondale

1946 – 2026

At the Center of it All – 80 Years & Counting

Avondale is proud to celebrate 80 years since the city's official incorporation in December, 1946. As you can see from this timeline, each decade is marked with major milestones that have contributed to Avondale's growth and success over the years. A city that boldly pursues progress for everyone who lives, works, invests, visits, explores, and innovates here, Avondale's strong government, with a clear vision from elected leadership and the community, have shaped this community's destiny. Today, Avondale is at the center of it all for growth and development, for investment and business, and for putting down roots. Importantly, Avondale is a city with heart. Its diverse, tight knit community of nearly 100,000 residents is served by over 800 dedicated city employees who are committed to making lives better.

PHOENIX RACEWAY

BEYOND NASCAR

Roaring Engines Meet Mud Runs, Food Fests & Campfires

The racetrack is just the start; when the cars go quiet, this place doesn't hit the brakes, it shifts gears. It becomes a stomping ground for food lovers, festival wanderers, mud-slinging athletes, RV fanatics, and even those lucky enough to glamp under the stars with VIP wristbands and a cooler full of cold ones.

Not Just a Pit Stop

If you thought the track was the main course, wait 'til you meet the sides. When FoodieLand rolls into Phoenix Raceway, it's like someone turned the infield into an open-air global kitchen. There are bao buns, birria tacos, spiral potatoes on sticks, and desserts so pretty you'll hesitate before eating them. It's a come-hungry, leave-stuffed situation. The best part? You're doing it all while music plays and people walk around with that "I've discovered something amazing" look on their faces. This isn't some hot dog stand at a county fair, it's a culinary exploration with raceway swagger.

Mud, Glory, and Dirty High-Fives

Ever thought, "I'd like to run 10 miles, crawl through barbed wire, and maybe feel an electrical jolt while strangers cheer me on"? Good news: Tough Mudder & Spartan Race events happen right here, on the very grounds where race cars hit 140 mph. The track area transforms. Barriers, ropes, trenches, hay bales, monkey bars, & slippery walls show up where tires once screamed. It's part obstacle course, part group therapy, and wholly unforgettable. Even if you're just there to support a muddy friend and yell encouraging nonsense from the sidelines, you'll leave feeling like you were part of something wild.

Big Wheels, Bigger Dreams

Ever walked into an RV & thought, "This is nicer than my house"? That's what happens at the Phoenix RV Super Show. It's an arena full of travel dreams. You'll find rigs that sleep 2, or sleep a whole youth baseball team. There are compact setups for weekend warriors or decked-out land yachts with more buttons than a spaceship. People come to shop, and also to look. You'll learn more about generators, pop outs, and satellite systems in a single lap than in a week on YouTube. It's oddly relaxing, deeply satisfying, and if you're not careful, you'll leave Googling "used RVs near me".

Want the VIP Treatment? This Is the Place

Phoenix Raceway knows how to treat its people. Whether it's NASCAR weekend or a special event, there's always a way to upgrade your experience, without feeling like you've wandered into some velvet-rope nonsense. That means walking past the garage bays, seeing the race crews in their element, and standing where TV cameras usually roll. They also offer celebrity meet-&-greet, depending on the event. Could be a NASCAR driver, a chef, or even someone from your favorite sports documentary. The vibe is casual, fun, and photo friendly. You'll definitely walk away with a story.

Camping... But Make It Luxe

If you've never camped at a raceway, you're missing out on one of the best-kept secrets of the Southwest. People don't just come for the day; they move in for the weekend. RVs, tents, trailers, pop-ups - you name it, it's there. Some folks deck out their site with flags, lights, grills, and full-on living rooms. It's part camping, part block party, and part low-key music festival. It's all about staying close to the action and waking up to the smell of bacon and a beautiful view of the Estrella Mountains overlooking the raceway.

The NASCAR Racing Experience

Everyone's had that moment on the freeway where you imagined yourself a race car driver, shifting into an imaginary gear & passing a slowpoke with style. At Phoenix Raceway, you can actually do it. Well... sort of. The NASCAR Racing Experience gives regular folks the chance to suit up, strap in, and drive a real race car around the same oval the pros tear through. You'll get some guidance first, but once you're out there, it's just you, the engine, and your need for speed. And yeah, they'll let you take a photo afterward so you can prove it actually happened.

Why This Place Deserves a Spot on Your Radar

Phoenix Raceway isn't just about motorsports. It's about moments -muddy ones, tasty ones, loud ones, and quiet ones under the stars. It's where you can eat like a king, run like a warrior, and camp like royalty, sometimes all in the same weekend. Whether you're a die-hard NASCAR fan or someone who likes trying new things, this place throws open the gates and says, "Come on in." So go ahead. Plan the trip. Bring your people. You're gonna have a good time.
